Term Mapping Overlaps

Bart has been working on the WG4 spreadsheet of domain terminology used by various NSC projects [0] and in particular the overlap in terms used. Bart reported that about 20% is currently mapped to URIs (In total there's 564 ontology terms, of which 456 still require mapping). The overlaps between sources are currently minimal, and the overlap only works on the terms and not yet the URIs. The code pulls out the information directly from the Google Spreadsheet and the statistics can be recalculated easily from an updated spreadsheet.
