Announcements

- Call for papers: special issue on nanoinformatics, e.g. see <http://www.internano.org/content/view/957/251/>
- 1st eNanoMapper webinar video available at <https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=io3AhDwRQQQ>

eNanoMapper Updates

- webinar with demo of the data platform component (see above)
- first eNanoMapper ontology should be online really soon now

Community Activities

Not necessarily a WG activity.

- database to ontology mapping
  - Linda will continue mapping; test case for the eNanoMapper ontology
  - NanoWiki added
- templates (also “fields” that need mapping)
  - Richard: myExperiment, or Google Code?
    - Both are valid options, with each different features.
  - Egon will attend a Bring Your Own Template meeting next week Friday and will report on the mailing list about this
  - Nina: eNanoMapper work on reading templates is progressing; framework available on GitHub: <https://github.com/enanomapper/nmdataparser>

Database task

- Egon: need to follow up with John Rumble on his comments about further databases
- Axel: we need start planning. Egon agrees.
  - aiming at NSC meeting in March in Venice option, but may be too soon
- Axel: align with NanoWG, CoR
- Actions
  - Egon: share survey, ask for feedback for improvements

Publishing task

- Linda and Egon will pick up this task soon; contact them if you like to be involved

March NSC meeting

- Egon cannot go, because of teaching obligations
